... was der Pelinkovac alles zu Tage fördert:

Du wirst dir klar, dass Du in Vergessenheit geraten wirst, früher oder später:

Time Went On

Time is like a river
You just see the waters flow
Like hours on the watch they come and go
Like hours on the watch they come and go

And good times are like beaches
You try to hold the sand
But the waves are washing up your hand
But the waves are washing up your hand

And bad times, when you've been guilty
Are the mirror of your life
As badly healed scars itching at night
As badly healed scars itching at night

I remember all the things we've done
And time went on
But time went on

Enemies came
And Friends are gone
Cause time went on
And time went on
But time went on
And time went on

And it's just a few hundred years ago
That the first man sold himself for money and gold
The first man sold himself for money and gold
And it's just a few hundred years ago
That the first man sold himself for money and gold
And at the end it's only history
Cause since then nobody is free
Cause since then nobody is free

I remember all the things we've done
And time went on
But time went on
Enemies came
And Friends are gone
Cause time went on
And the things went wrong
And time went on
Couse the things went wrong

And no one will remember me
In one or two years or three
